NOVEMBER 10, 2004
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FORMER LEE'S SUMMIT BUSINESS OWNER SENTENCED FOR PENSION FUND EMBEZZLEMENT

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a former Lee's Summit, Mo., business owner was sentenced in federal court today for failing to file pension plan reports in an effort to cover up his embezzlement of pension funds.

Christopher G. Andrew, 42, of Lee's Summit, was sentenced by U.S. Chief Magistrate Judge John T. Maughmer this morning to two months in federal prison without parole followed by one year of supervised release, including four months of home confinement, and a $2,000 fine.

On Aug. 3, 2004, Andrew pleaded guilty to a May 19, 2004, federal indictment. Andrew is the former co-owner and president of Andrew Technology, Inc., a Lee's Summit company providing computer programming services and specializing in software systems analysis and design.

Andrew, the plan administrator for the company's 401(k) retirement plan, admitted that he failed to file the annual report for the 401(k) plan for the calendar year 2001, as required by federal law. In 2001, Graves explained, Andrew caused employee withholding for retirement to be withheld from paychecks of employees, but did not forward all of the withholding to Sterling Trust Company, the directed trustee/custodian of retirement funds. Instead, Graves said, Andrew embezzled $24,593 by stealing employee contributions to the plan for his own use and for other purposes. Andrew admitted that he failed to file the report in order to avoid reporting his failure to forward employee contributions to the plan between Oct. 1, 2001, and June 30, 2002. Andrew admitted that he also failed to file the mandatory annual report for the calendar year 2002.

This case was prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney J. Daniel Stewart. It was investigated by the Employee Benefits Security Administration of the Department of Labor.
